New Format, better news!

There's always room for improvement, and in the case of this newsletter the information that I deliver will be comprised of up and coming products, testimonials and Welcome! I do hope that you enjoy my new format idea; first a brief video explaining a little about what's in the print portion of the newsletter, and then an easy to download PDF print newsletter sharing all the details.

If you're like me, your reading time is very limited. I read my educational books when time permits during the day, and I read my mysteries at night before I drift off to sleep. My catalogs and newsletters have the pristine place by the commode. So if this is also your "reading room" feel free to print the PDF and enjoy at your leisure:)

And as always, please feel free to share with anyone who you feel may have an interest. To your health!

stories from those who have something to share, and relevant seasonal information to help you through darker days of winter, sloppy days of spring and fall, and hot summer days! Your feedback is very important, so please feel free to email me and let me know what you think!

The newsletter will start with a short video of me sharing what's new! And then you can access the PDF document that has all the details of all the news. I thought this might be a nice way to touch base using technology, and keeping a bit more of a personal twist to things. Let me know what you think:)
